

MIDWEST REGIONAL BANK BEGINS CONSTRUCTION IN CLAYTON

Clayton, MO

Midwest Regional Bank held a Groundbreaking Ceremony in October to mark the start of their Clayton Banking Center construction. Located at 135 N. Meramec Ave in the heart of Clayton, the new branch is a part of the bank's extension into mid-county and will serve both Retail and Commercial customers. Like MWRBank's other banking centers, the new Clayton facility will have a WiFi café with complimentary coffee and fresh-baked cookies, ATM and Drive-Thru Banking. The project is expected to be complete in Spring 2018.

Midwest Regional Bank is a Missouri state-chartered full-service bank providing products and services to the retail and commercial markets. Operating since 1894, Midwest Regional Bank has assets of over $560 million and has Missouri offices in Arnold, Chesterfield, Clayton, Creve Coeur, Festus, Kirkwood, Otterville, Sunset Hills, and across the country in Arizona, Colorado, Illinois, Florida and Texas.
