

MIDWEST REGIONAL BANK

ANDREW HORN EARNS PRESTIGIOUS BANKING DIPLOMA FROM THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BANKING AT COLORADO

CLAYTON, MO – August 15, 2023

Drew Horn, Vice President of Credit Administration at Midwest Regional Bank, has graduated from the Graduate School of Banking at Colorado's (GSBC) state-of-the-art graduate school of banking program. Drew was among 166 graduates of the class of 2023 honored during a ceremony on July 27, 2023 in Boulder, Colorado.

Drew earned this esteemed degree after three years of courses focused on advanced Financial Management and Strategy, Innovation and Engagement, Leadership and Culture and Lending.

"The coursework and projects at GSBC strive to create technically sound and future-oriented community bank leaders," said GSBC President Michael Stevens.

"The ultimate beneficiary will be the consumers and businesses in the communities where these financial professionals serve."

Midwest Regional Bank is a full-service bank with headquarters in Festus, Missouri. Operating since 1894, Midwest Regional Bank has assets of over $900 million and has Full-Service Branch offices throughout Missouri, located in Festus, Kirkwood, Arnold, Chesterfield, Sunset Hills, Clayton, and Otterville, and Limited-Service Loan Production offices across the country in Colorado, Arizona, Texas and Florida.

Member
FDIC

